Chamber secretary makes urgent plea as EDDC says it will offer it as asset

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

EAST Devon District Council (EDDC) has confirmed that it will be offering Seaton Town Council the opportunity to take over the maintenance of an historic landmark as chamber secretary makes a plea for the works to be carried out.

As previously reported in this newspaper, the clock tower on Jubilee Gardens is in danger of falling into disrepair unless essential maintenance works are carried out. In December last year the district council said it was hoping to repair the clock tower in February.

However, the repair works did not materialise and in a statement to Pulman's View a spokesman for the district council has said that it will offering the clock tower to Seaton Town Council as an asset.

EDDC has blamed a cut in its budget as the reason for not carrying out repairs on the clock tower.

Seaton and District Chamber of Commerce is hoping a resolution can be found because it believes the clock tower is a valuable asset to Seaton and that it also acts as a tourist magnet during the summer season. Seaton Town Council was due to discuss the issue at a council meeting as this newspaper went to press on Monday.

Trial team in regional round

YEAR nine pupils at Colyton Grammar School have made it through to the regional round of a competition.

The team are taking part in the Junior Mock Trial 2011 and competed in the local heat of the competition at Exeter Magistrates' Court recently.

During the competition team members take on the role of lawyers, witnesses, magistrates, ushers and legal advisors.

A spokesman for the grammar school said: "The team had been practising the case since October 2010.

"On the day we were up against two schools, West Exe and Hele's School, Plymouth.

"The first round consisted of Colyton's defence team against the West Exe prosecution. Colyton put on a great performance and managed to get a key witness to admit to not being sure of what she saw.

"The next round comprised of Hele's against West Exe and the final round was between Colyton's prosecution and Hele's defence.

"At the end of the day, the results came in and Colyton had won the local heat of the competition and are now going through onto the regional final in May.

"Congratulations to all of the mock trial team for doing so well."

Young Zoe makes it to national cook final

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

A YOUNGSTER from Beer is set to represent the south west in the national final of a cooking contest.

Zoe Sing has beaten off stiff competition from other young chefs from across the UK and has made it through to the Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland Young Chef Competition.

The final will be held at Stratford-

Upon-Avon College, Warwickshire, on Saturday, April 30th.

Zoe has said that she is hoping to cook a starter of pea purée with Thai prawns and pea shoots, a main course of duck breast with creamed cabbage, fried butternut squash and chicory tarts served with a cherry sauce and a dessert of dark chocolate mousse with hazelnut praline.

Expert judges including chefs Valentine Warner and Phil Thompson and Karen Barnes editor of Delicious magazine will be on hand to judge Zoe's food in the final.

Jim Moulson, president of Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland, will also be attending the final.

He said: "I am very proud of all our competitors. Getting through to the school and regional finals is an achievement in itself. South west regional winner Zoe has worked very hard and now faces an even tougher challenge in Stratford-Upon-Avon where she is facing the best from across the country.

"Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland Young Chef is a great opportunity for anyone who enjoys cooking or who wants to have a go. It could be a stepping stone to a career in the food industry, but more importantly it is a good way for young people to have fun while learning an important life skill."

The competition winner will receive a trip to the Filippo Berio olive groves in Tuscany and a day's cooking tuition at the Michelin-starred Auberge du Lac in Hertfordshire.

400 breakfasts served at event

THE committee of the Colyton and Colyford Group of Cancer Research UK is pleased to report that the profit of the Big Breakfast, held in Colyton Town Hall on March 4th, was a success and raised a grand total of £2,552.50. The event served over 400 breakfasts on the day.

A spokesperson for the event said: "Our very grateful thanks goes to all who supported the event in any way. We include those who joined us for breakfast, the local traders who gave us provisions, loaned equipment or made donations of any kind.

"We must also say a very big thank you to all our helpers on the day, we could not hold this event without your help.

"Thank You to you all for supporting Cancer Research UK."

Coastguard assists lady

BEER Coastguard rescue officers were tasked to assist a woman in her 50s suffering from chest pains near Beer Head at about 1pm on Sunday, March 27th.

They were requested by the ambulance service and a Coastguard spokesperson said: "The Coastguards quickly located the lady and ascertained she was out of breath after climbing steps and, after a rest, was able to continue on her walk."

Tool centre raises £10k for NSPCC

AXMINSTER Tool Centre has raised a total of £10,000 for the NSPCC Child's Voice Appeal.

During the past six months the company has been raising money for the appeal and on Friday, March 18th, tool centre staff held a charity race night at the Dolphin Hotel, Beer.

The race night raised in excess of £2,000 taking the total amount raised by Axminster Tool Centre to more than £10,000.

A spokesman for the company said: "Spearheaded by TV star and business woman Deborah Meaden, of Dragons' Den fame, companies around the south west were challenged to raise over £5,000 in six months for ChildLine South West.

"Based in Exeter, ChildLine South West are only currently able to answer two thirds of all calls that they receive and the funds raised will go towards recruiting a training new volunteers.

"Axminster Tool Centre set themselves a personal target of £10,000 which they have now reached."

The spokesman added: "The charity race night included highlights such as entertainment and magic, food, auctioning of prizes and a raffle of prizes donated by local companies.

"Axminster Tool Centre would like to thank everyone that took part in making the event such a success with particular thanks to the Dolphin Hotel for their support and generosity throughout."

Donations for the charity appeal are still being accepted at <http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/team/atcdragonschallenge>.

Group sets pledges for election bidders

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

WITH the local elections taking place in just over a month's time, an east Devon campaign group has drafted a set of seven pledges that candidates standing in the elections are being invited to sign up to.

Communities Before Developers (CBD) came up with the initiative and hope to make it easier for residents across the district to pick the right candidate.

Sandra Semple, CBD campaigner, said: "It can be really hard work to make a decision on how to vote in council elections because often the candidates aren't well known. Invariably, you don't know whether you are voting for someone who will work for the community or not.

"It's great if you know your candidate well and are confident that they will represent your views but too often people end up voting along party lines by default, which can be rather a hit and miss affair to say the least.

"This exercise will be interesting and will sort the wheat from the chaff."

Four members of the campaign group intend to stand on the May elections. Jonathan Underwood for the Liberal Democrats, Sharon Pavey for the Green Party and Claire Wright and Roger Giles will be standing as independent candidates.

Mrs Semple added: "Now is the time for a review of every candidate's intentions. We are hopeful that the majority of councillors sitting on East Devon District Council after the May elections will have been chosen on the basis of their desire to work for their communities."

The pledge is believed to be the first initiative of its kind in east Devon.

Claire Wright, spokesman for CBD, said: "The candidates' pledge is mainly development-related because this is where the residents of east Devon are most unhappy with East Devon District Council.

"Candidates can view and sign up to the pledge by leaving a comment on the CBD website.

"CBD will record which candidates are standing in the election and a running tally of who has signed up to the candidates pledge."

To view the set of seven pledges visit www.communitiesbeforedevelopers.org.

Jurassic work

A GROUP of Year 9 geographers from The Woodroffe School's Gifted and Talented programme attended a conference at Kingston Maurward to present their findings on the Jurassic Coast.

The students have been working on a nine-month project involving seven secondary schools from Exmouth to Swanage.

Group members concentrated on three issues: What are the special qualities of the coast?; How is the coast changing?; What does the future hold for the coast?

Those interviewed as part of the research included a local fisherman, the Lyme Regis harbour master and representatives of The National Trust.

Their findings were presented by using print and film media to representatives of Defra, Dorset County Council and other invited guests as well as the other schools involved.

Justin Loveland, head of geography at the Lyme Regis school, commented: "The students have worked really hard for this event and certainly have a good idea of the issues facing our coastline as well as learning the skills needed to present their findings in an informative and interesting way."

Cadets night

AXE Valley Community Police Cadets will be holding its annual awards night in Seaton Town Hall tomorrow (Wednesday).

The event starts at 7pm and awards include Cadet of the Year, Policing Standards Cup, Team Player Award, Most Improved Cadet and the Community Cup.

Members of the public are invited to attend the awards ceremony.

DCC says no area libraries will close despite cash cuts

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

LIBRARY users across Pulman's Country can rest easy as Devon County Council (DCC) has announced that no library will close despite a cut in money allocated by a Government grant.

Now a public consultation is under way and library users in Axminster, Colyton, Honiton, Ottery St Mary and Seaton are being urged to get involved and help the county council shape the future of the library service that it offers.

The consultation will ask Pulman's Country residents how and when they use libraries and what ideas they have to ensure the buildings could be better used by communities for other purposes.

DCC has said that it wants to match local opening hours to demand.

Stuart Barker, DCC cabinet member with responsibility for libraries, has also extended an open invitation to library friends groups to encourage local people to respond to the consultation and to make suggestions about how they can support their local library.

He said: "Despite unprecedented cuts in the budget no libraries in Devon will be closed and by maintaining the current network across the county we want to ensure that as many people as possible have access to a permanent or mobile library.

"This consultation is about how and when people want to use libraries in the future and how we can develop them to offer more services, not about closures.

"By sharing costs with other services we can make better use of available resources.

"By working together with residents we want to make sure libraries are available when people want to use them most and make sure the county council spends its money wisely as far as libraries are concerned."

The public consultation will take place throughout April.

Mr Barker added: "The results of this public consultation are an important next stage in modernising the service and in ensuring libraries reflect what local communities need and where appropriate we use the buildings for other purposes.

"Before we make any changes we want to understand how people use our libraries and gather ideas on how to sustain and increase this use within available resources.

"The views of our residents are important to us and we welcome their involvement and support in helping make the most of our library service."

The consultation surveys will be available at libraries across east Devon and can be completed online at www.devon.gov.uk/libraries. Residents can also send comments to librarysurvey@devon.gov.uk or call 0845 155 1001.

◆ AXMINSTER Flower Festival volunteers held a coffee morning to raise funds to buy flowers

Flower festival helpers coffee bid

AXMINSTER Flower Festival volunteers staged a fundraising coffee morning on Thursday.

The event was held in the Church Rooms, Axminster, and many visitors attended.

All the money raised will go towards funds to buy flowers for the Minster Flower Festival which takes place from Wednesday, May 18th, until Sunday, May 22nd. The theme of this year's flower festival is Composers Past and Present and the volunteers need to raise approximately £1,000.

Stop to local grants funds

MAKING It Local, a grant funding organisation that is open to people and businesses from across the Blackdown Hills and East Devon Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, is suspending funding to new applicants.

Making It Local is a £2.4 million fund and is currently part of the Rural Development Programme for England which is currently managed by the regional development agencies.

The regional development agencies are set to transfer to Defra in July and Defra has said it will be carrying out a review and reallocation of spending.

Paul Diviani, chair of Making It Local, said: "We cannot approve any new applications at present, but we will still accept and advise on applications so that they can move forward quickly when the money is released in a few months' time.

"The Making It Local team are also working hard to help projects find alternative funding, so we would encourage people to continue to contact us."

Pupils' £1k for charity

STAFF and students at an east Devon grammar school have raised more than £1,000 for Comic Relief.

A host of activities was held at Colyton Grammar School on Friday, March 18th, all raising money for the charity. Activities included wearing something red, a Red Nose Day quiz and some students wore moustaches.

Healthy and happy kids

YOUNGSTERS at Honiton's Folly Nursery have taken part in a range of activities for the National Day Nurseries Association's Campaign 'Healthy Body, Happy Me'.

The campaign was held last week and throughout the week children at the Honiton nursery enjoyed healthy food and took part in a nationwide bird watch.

Head of Nursery, Helen Freeman, said: "It was a wonderful week which all our children, from the babies to the pre-schoolers, took part in. It is absolutely fantastic for the children to be outside and in the fresh air, they learnt so much - from distinguishing between bird songs, to social skills and looking out for and helping their peers."

Open event

CHARDSTOCK Bowling Club will be holding an open day on Saturday, April 16th.

The event will run from 11am until late afternoon and club members will be on hand to welcome anyone who is interested in playing bowls.

For more information and directions contact club secretary Brian Howard on 01460 220915.

Fashion show

A CHARITY fashion show will be held at Colyton Town Hall on Saturday, April 9th, from 7pm.

Tickets cost £3.50 and are available from Flix Hair Design in Colyton.

All money raised will be donated to Seaton Hospital and the Home Nursing Service. For more information contact 01297 20143.

WARNING: Time to save town's clock

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

A SEATON landmark is in danger of falling into disrepair unless urgent maintenance works are carried out.

That is the view of the secretary of the Seaton and District Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber secretary Gaynor Sedgwick believes repair works should be carried out on the clock tower in Jubilee Gardens as soon as possible.

As previously reported, the clock has been silent since last October and East Devon District Council (EDDC) said that it had hoped to carry out repairs to the clock tower in February this year.

However, the repair works have not happened and speaking to this newspaper Gaynor said: "The clock still remains unrepaired despite reassurances from EDDC that it would be restored and the chime reinstated by February.

"Following enquiries to EDDC, I am told that due to their maintenance budget being cut by 50 per cent, funding is not available to repair the clock tower or restore the chime.

"EDDC has offered to transfer the clock tower to Seaton Town Council as an asset. EDDC say that the clock chime can be repaired for £1,000 and external repairs will be in the region of £1,500 to £2,000.

"If Seaton Town Council decide not to take on the clock it will fall into disrepair and the familiar chime will no longer ring out over Seaton."

Gaynor added: "The clock is a great historic asset to Seaton. It is much loved by local residents and visitors alike.

"It features in many local publications, photographs and paintings and it would be a travesty if, for the sake of a relatively small amount, it was allowed to fall into disrepair."

A spokesman for EDDC confirmed that the district council has offered to transfer the clock to Seaton Town Council.

He said: "The clock stopped in 2010 due to a broken wire. As other maintenance work was needed, EDDC's officers arranged for all the work to be done in one go, so saving contractors going to the site twice. In the meantime maintenance budgets have been cut leaving only sufficient funds for health and safety and legislative works.

"Therefore, no work will now be carried out by EDDC on the clock or the tower.

"This news was passed to councillor Steph Jones, the Seaton champion, with a suggestion that she might like to ask the town council if they wished to take on the asset.

"It is now for Seaton Town Council to consider if it wishes to take over the clock.

"In 2010, when EDDC was considering its longer term budgets, maintenance of clocks was identified as an item that might have to be cut. This information was communicated to town and parish councils at the time."

Seaton Town Council was due to discuss the issue at a council meeting as this newspaper went to press on Monday.

◆ GAYNOR Sedgwick is hoping that the clock tower at Seaton's Jubilee Gardens will be repaired

Waving white flag for locals to work as one

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indlenews.co.uk

A PROSPECTIVE Honiton town and district councillor is calling for residents in Honiton to work together as a community.

Sharon Pavey says she is waving the white flag and urging residents to help Honiton reach its full potential by voting in the May local elections.

Mrs Pavey, who will be standing in the upcoming local elections, said she was particularly concerned about allotment provision and the proposed Honiton Community Centre.

She said she would like to see people in Honiton being given the chance to grow their own food on allotments. However, as previously reported in Pulman's View, a site at Honiton Bottom Road that the town council had earmarked for allotments has now been given village green status.

"I live around the corner from this area (Honiton Bottom Road) and walk my dog there. It is a huge space, certainly big enough for allotments and recreation. Dog owners can also use the nature reserve across the road, the lane up to St Michael's Church, Roundball Hill and the fields surrounding it," said Mrs Pavey.

"As for the community centre, I think it's unfortunate that the town council were not allowed to advertise the recent town poll and that a core group of objectors turned out to vote against it.

"But speaking to people across the town, I know a lot of people want a community centre and would use it. I certainly would with my young family and urge anyone else who thinks this way to make their views known via the ballot box.

"The town is being offered nearly half the money needed [for the community centre] and the rest is a long term loan. Yes it will cost money, but with a town that has grown as fast as Honiton has and has so many young families, we need to invest in everyone's future and have a fantastic focal point for the town."

A Honiton Issues Coffee Morning and Green Market will take place at the Mackarness Hall on Saturday, April 23rd from 10am until 12noon. During the coffee morning residents will have the chance to speak to Mrs Pavey and other prospective councillors.

Mrs Pavey, who is also the coordinator of the East Devon Green Party, added: "If you don't vote in the May local elections then you may well be lumbered with local councillors who are not serving your interests.

"We especially need the younger generation to vote for local councillors who want the Honiton Community Centre, who support our youth services and who will fight against cuts to other services in our town."

Kids' tsunami appeal cranes

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indlenews.co.uk

CHILDREN at Offwell Primary School have been busy raising money to send to the Japan tsunami appeal.

The school collected pledges and the youngsters were challenged to make more than 1,000 origami cranes.

According to ancient Japanese culture the crane is considered one of the most mythical and powerful creatures.

The charity challenge was inspired by a member of staff from the school who used to live and work in Japan.

A spokesman for the school said: "In ancient Japanese legend anyone who made 1,000 origami cranes was granted a wish. There was also an old story in Japan that a young girl who got radiation poisoning after the Hiroshima bomb was dropped tried to make 1,000 cranes before her death.

"Unfortunately she failed but her family and friends rallied round and made the cranes for her."

Parents also came along to help out at the charity event that took place on Wednesday, March 23rd.

The spokesman added: "I don't know how much we raised in total but we had more than £300 in pledges which is great. Overall everyone managed to make a total of 1,412 origami cranes.

"One of our teachers used to live and work in Japan so she was a real inspiration for this event. The children really enjoyed the day and lots of our parents came along to help out as well.

"We haven't yet decided which Japan tsunami appeal charity to send the money to yet but we hope it can help."

Staff turn the office heat up in Comic Relief fundraiser

STAFF at a Honiton company have raised more than £300 for Comic Relief.

Nu-Heat's Honiton offices, on the Heathpark Industrial Estate, were awash with colour on Friday, March 18th, as staff came to work dressed in fancy dress. A bake-off was also held along with a Red Nose Sweepstake.

A spokesman for Nu-Heat said: "Costumes included cowgirls, tigers and lions, Pinocchio and builders.

The bake-off featured key lime pie, fairy cakes, Bakewell tart, banoffee pie and banana loaf.

"Nu-Heat's best Comic Relief fundraiser to date raised a terrific £307.50."

Nominate firms which offer good customer service

RESIDENTS across east Devon are being invited to recommend a business which has offered them excellent customer service.

The initiative is the brain child of Nick Hall, of Sidmouth, who produces the Our Local Expert Guide.

The guide is delivered free to more than 35,000 homes across east Devon.

Nick said: "Businesses are jumping at the chance to feature (in the guide) and I'm always hearing from people how useful they find it when they're looking for trustworthy tradespeople or quality local produce.

"Of course, there are other not-dissimilar guides out there but the thing about Our Local Expert is that it's put together by someone who lives in the local community it serves and, moreover, is passionate about providing a resource for that community by identifying local businesses and tradespeople who routinely go the extra mile."

Businesses that are picked to feature in the guide will also feature on the website that runs in tandem with it and will also feature on social media sites.

Anyone who would like to nominate a local business to feature in Our Local Expert can contact Nick on 01395 513869 or email nick@ourlocalexpert.co.uk.

Should workers fret about jobs?

EDITOR — I have been following the Axminster Carpets' Cloakham Lawns correspondence with interest.

All the time, Axminster Carpets talks of being able to increase jobs if it gets the cash injection that developing Cloakham Lawns brings them.

Everyone — including your anonymous letter writer who works at the Axminster factory — assumes this means in Axminster.

In an article in the Daily Telegraph of June 21st 2010, the owner of the company is reported as saying that, having shed 10 per cent of its staff in the past two years and having bought new robotic looms, that cut the man hours of changing a design from 250 to just two, he is now hoping to create 20 to 25 jobs.

However, he goes on to say that these will be at the Buckfast factory, not in Axminster.

Do not forget, also, that Axminster Carpets does a lot of its manufacturing at its factory in Ireland, where the credit crunch may make it cheaper than ever to produce goods there.

If I were an employee of Axminster Carpets in Axminster, I would be more worried about losing my job now than ever before.

Less moaning please

EDITOR — Post Office waiting is getting excessive?

Referring to Sean Mccrum's letter recently in your paper regarding Honiton Post Office this prompted me to make a comment.

He has realised, clever him, that if you are able to use a smaller town or village Post Office, such as Ottery, then that is the way to do it.

And, surely, if the Honiton Post Office is "queuing out the doors" between 9am and noon then isn't it more sensible to try and use a more off peak time, during the afternoon for example.

In these days of villages being without Post Offices surely we are very fortunate to even have one and a big spacious one at that, which serves us very well.

We can send parcels, letters and cards, collect pensions and obtain foreign currency.

The staff are excellent and helpful with advice.

Would Mr Mccrum like the Post Office to close? Then what would he do? It would be good to have less moaning in Honiton.

Let Tesco get on with its job and start regenerating

EDITOR — Having been born and bred in Seaton, I would just like to offer my sincere thanks to Tesco.

Thank you for selecting our town for your new store, thank you for starting the much-needed regeneration of our town, it is a great pity that you are not able to regenerate the other 'derelict areas' of our town, such as the Racial site and the Seaton Heights area, all of which are in a sad state of decay and look dreadful.

Thank you for offering to provide us with a much greater choice of products, not only foodstuffs but electrical goods such as radios and TVs, and a vast choice of other essential household items, none of which are available in our town.

Thank you for providing us with a fantastic opportunity for local employment.

Thank you for giving us people in Seaton the same facilities and competitive choices available to our neighbours in other towns that already have the competition and choice.

We currently have two food shops in town, both under the same ownership, we also have two half dispensing pharmacies, again both under the same ownership, so no competition there.

Once you are open, no doubt people will say that you have destroyed our local shops, but this will not be true, for the town is already in a state of decline, we already have no less than 12 closed stores or restaurants within the town centre area — you can't be blamed for that.

It is very difficult to shop in this town, we have to stop and think what day it is or what time it is, as many of the shops close several afternoons, and a lot of them also close for lunch, which is not very customer friendly.

You will also provide a safe area for us to park our cars whilst shopping, and you will not have your delivery lorries double park across Harepath Road, sometimes blocking more than half the road.

People say that you have vandalised Harbour Road, cutting down trees but, what about the young trees that have been snapped to pieces in Harbour Road, not by you, but by our own people?

Some people say that you have ruined the beach with the pipeline — they obviously do not realise that within a few months it will all be restored back and no one will know any different.

It is a pity that you have had all this opposition over the past months. Had you not had such constant small minded moaning, your development would now have been completed, the whole area would have been landscaped and look far better than the old empty site.

So, the quicker they allow you to complete the work, the quicker our town will be back to normal, far smarter with greater facilities for us all to enjoy and, of course, we would all have the convenience of shopping locally rather than having to drive to the surrounding towns.

£10 Archway Bookshop vouchers are on their way to your door...

What is happening to our sad town?

EDITOR — Axminster has been my home for many years and I have enjoyed the peace and tranquility of this lovely market town.

I have witnessed the inevitable closure of the cattle market and the creation of an empathetic housing development on the site.

However, the new proposed development at Cedar Gardens fills me with trepidation as I walk past and see the dangerous state of the retaining wall and the loss of the beautiful cedar tree that graced its once beautiful grounds.

Amidst the general state of dereliction I notice too that in the adjoining Cedar Close a lovely shrub border has been ripped out and loosely tarmaced over so that the developer can expand his parking area.

After more than a year of deterioration, I ask, what are those responsible for the well-being of the town doing to rectify this sad state of affairs?

I, hopefully, await a response!

The entertaining and heart warming story of Wren and Rascal, two orphaned baby meerkats hand-reared by the Collier family.

The Colliers are a pretty normal family: mum, dad, two kids, two dogs and two cats ... as well as a few wallabies, two lemurs, several owls, Ringo, the bad-tempered crane and two cheeky, hand-reared meerkats named Wren and Rascal.

The Meerkats of Summer Farm is the remarkable story of a year at Axe Valley Bird and Animal Park, following the birth of the adorable young kits. In her charming and often hilarious memoir, Jayne Collier describes how these two playful and ever-curious creatures became the park's star attraction and – in spite of permanent damage to her kitchen floor and occasional (subterranean) breaks for freedom – found a permanent place in the family's heart.

Jayne Collier and her husband Andrew opened Axe Valley Bird and Animal Park to the public in 2008, close to the family's Devon dairy farm. They have two children, Jake and Lily, and many, many animals.

Roads need to be improved quickly

EDITOR — I am pleased to see in the Pulman's View March 8th edition that our MP, Neil Parish, recognises the need to improve the highway infrastructure in Seaton as a consequence of Tesco's redevelopment and I would urge him to pursue this with Devon County Council and East Devon District Council.

Alas though, due to government financial constraints, I see little prospect of finance for improvements being provided.

To hope to fully service the entire regeneration site by a single road off Harbour Road is short-sighted and a recipe for chaos.

EDDC as planning authority have failed the town. Tesco should be obliged to meet the cost of improving the highway infrastructure.

At the time of the planning application in June 2009 I specifically drew the attention of both DDC and EDDC to the inadequacy of the road network.

Regardless of the right-bends in town and Axmouth free traffic flow will be hindered by traffic lights on Harbour Road controlling site access.

By increased pedestrian crossings at Underfleet and existing roundabouts, one of which will additionally serve the new visitor centre. The regeneration site as a whole is an island into and out of which traffic and pedestrians alike need to get with the inevitable interruption to all peripheral traffic which will simply back up.

The more the site is developed and traffic volumes increase the greater the problem will become.

A solution I suggested at the time still exists which is to construct a by-pass off Underfleet from a point just beyond Fleet Court along the northerly edge of the site to Riverside at the east end — this route should also service the site.

Whilst EDDC cannot now ask Tesco to fund a part of the shore development they can, and should, make any further redevelopment subject to the developer making available sufficient land for such a roadway and meeting the cost of construction.

EDDC would need to co-operate and release part of their land off Underfleet for this purpose.

Views are considered during a consultation

EDITOR — If readers of your newspaper have responded to the consultation process on the Local Development Framework in east Devon, I have no doubt that their views, like mine, as I responded too, will be considered in accordance with the proper consultation and legal procedures.

The feedback from the public was received by the Development Control Committee of East Devon District Council.

The Development Control Committee is made up of Conservative, Liberal Democrat and Independent councillors who are all involved in the consultation process to achieve a Local Development Framework for the whole of east Devon.

Pressure groups who want no development at all in the district have expressed criticism of the legal process involved but my own personal experience of being a district councillor at a time of change in the plan for local development is the exact opposite.

During my time a consultative document was issued in the same way as the Local Development Framework.

I had three meetings in my council ward, Ottery St Mary Rural, and asked all those present whether they wanted development.

The message was clear, the people did not.

This feedback was reported to EDDC and the result was that we did not have any major development.

The proof of the pudding is in the eating. Two significant applications for development in the Ottery Rural ward have been heard in the last month by the Development Control Committee. On both occasions the leader of EDDC, Sara Randall Johnson, has spoken strongly against development and both have been refused.

I think residents of West Hill, Tipton St John and Aylesbeare would find it quite difficult to identify planning applications in the last 10 years that have been approved by the Development Control Committee that they have been really concerned about.

The only cases that caused me real concern were those refused by EDDC and yet were allowed by the Planning Inspectorate at Bristol.

Hopefully the new localism policy being introduced by the Conservatives will take care of that problem in the future.

Pray for love

EDITOR — We are appalled by the violence in north Africa. We see the anger, the hatred and the fear in people's faces. We feel helpless. What can we do?

Love is the only power by which evil can be overcome and the only sufficient basis for human society.

Think of the positives Tesco will bring

EDITOR — So now we have another new name "Tesco-phobes".

What is the matter with our town, everyone is so negative, it's always "No, no, not here". Sadly we are stuck in a time warp, and if something is not done soon, for the people of Seaton, the whole town will die.

Why should we be deprived of the shopping facilities enjoyed by the residents of say Sidmouth and Axminster, why should we not have the same choice as them, why should we have to travel miles to find a decent choice of goods in the shops?

It is very difficult to shop in Seaton as most of the shops close by mid-afternoon, and some for an hour at lunchtime, this makes it very difficult for working people. I for one, and there are a lot of others like me, cant wait for Tesco to arrive in our town, so we too can start enjoying the greater choice, not only of food but many other essential daily items.

And think of the extra local employment, increased revenue to the council for business rates and more.

Pet Month

For all your pet needs and accessories

National Pet Month in a nutshell

From 2 April – 2 May 2011, you are invited to be a part of National Pet Month. Thousands of people up and down the UK will be celebrating life with their pets, spreading the word on responsible pet ownership or raising money for their favourite charity in fun-filled events. Why not be a part of this?

National Pet Month's aims

are to:

- Promote responsible pet ownership.
- Make people aware of the mutual benefits of living with pets.
- Increase public awareness of the role of pet care specialists.
- Raise awareness of the value of working and assistance companion animals.

Each year the responsible pet ownership message is conveyed by running the events under a central theme. Our 2011 theme is 'Happiness is....time with your pet'.

National Pet Month is a registered charity, unique in bringing together animal welfare charities, professional bodies, pet businesses, schools, youth groups and pet lovers, with the common goal of improving the welfare of pets. The trustees are National Office of Animal Health (NOAH), Pet Food Manufacturers' Association (PFMA) and Pet Care Trust (PCT). Anyone interested in running events for National Pet Month should check out the details on putting on an event at www.nationalpet-month.org.uk.

Can you help Tigger and his friends?

Tigger is currently seeking a new home in a rural location – can you help?

Do you want to make a real difference as we head into National Pet Month? Honiton Cats Protection currently have vacancies for helpers in the shop situated in the High Street.

You will need to have good people skills and it would be helpful if you were able to volunteer on a regular basis as part of a rota.

The shop is one of the ways in which we raise funds for the care of cats and kittens whilst they are waiting for new homes. If you want to be more hands-on then we are also seeking new foster homes in the EX14 postcode area. If you have a large garden and time to spend ensuring that cats and kittens in our care are well looked after maybe this is for you - cats like Tigger need people like you!

To find out more about these volunteering opportunities, and chat through the possibilities with Toni or Lizzie, please call Honiton Cats Protection on 01404 45241. Remember that's the same number to call if you want to offer a good home to a cat or kitten in National Pet Month – or at any other time!

2ND APRIL - 2ND MAY

Have you got a cranky canine? A flagging feline? Or even a troubled tortoise? Well fear not, as National Pet Month (NPM) is returning from 2nd April – 2nd May 2011 to put the wag back into the tails of the United Kingdom's pet population. The best selection of local animal services to keep your pet healthy and happy are on this page!

Adorable adoptees at Cats Protection shelter

As spring arrives whilst many of you may be thinking about giving a home to a cat or kitten, we at Cats Protection are bracing ourselves for the usual influx of unwanted kittens.

Last year our branch alone took in nearly 200 kittens.

We could have taken in many more but we had neither the room nor the volunteers to care for them.

Many of the kittens we were unable to take in will have died in pain and misery or will have been abandoned to become long term strays.

This is why for the last two months we have been offering free neutering to encourage people to get their cats neutered before this year's kittening season begins.

Cats can be neutered from 4 months of age and as a female cat can become pregnant at 5 months old it is important that all cats are neutered as soon as possible.

Neutering is a safe procedure which has become commonplace in veterinary practices for over 30 years.

There are many other reasons for having your cat neutered.

Neutered cats cost less to feed and are less likely to get sick or injured.

Neutering also reduces a cat's likelihood to roam, fight, spray and catch certain diseases such as FIV and FELV.

They are also less likely to get certain cancers.

Un-neutered Toms will be attracted to your home when your un-neutered female is in season.

Contrary to popular belief, neutering cats does not reduce their hunting skills. Once the necessity for mating and the responsibility of rearing kittens has been eliminated, cats can concentrate on other things!

All the cats and kittens we home have been neutered, or we offer free neutering for kittens when they are old enough. They are also fully vet checked, vaccinated and micro-chipped.

So, if you would like a cat or kitten from us, ring one of the numbers on the accompanying advert or check out our web site.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

WE start this week with news of a local course for those working with children in our churches.

It will be held at St Gregory's Church Hall Seaton on the following Mondays – May 9th, July 11th and 18th, September 19th, October 17th and November 14th.

Details can be found at www.coastalchurch.org.uk/activities/courses/ and the course costs £2 a person per session – book by emailing jeremytrew@hotmail.com with your name, address and phone number. The course is led by Kathleen Lyddon.

More local training is offered for church officers on Thursday, May 19th at St Leonard's Church, Exeter, and at the Old Deanery, Exeter, on Saturday, June 11th. Both days from 9am to 4pm. Bookings to hannah.galvin@exeter.anglican.org.

Between 800 and 900 former Anglicans, including 61 clergy, will join the Catholic Church during Holy Week and Easter. The Anglican exodus boosted the number of people taking part in Rite of Election ceremonies in England and Wales to a record level of over 4,700.

Attendance at the Rite was optional for former Anglicans joining the Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham, yet 795 attended at Catholic cathedrals at the weekend. The Rite begins the final stage of preparation to be received into the Catholic Church. At 240, Brentwood Diocese has the largest number of ex-Anglicans joining the Church. Nationally, the south of England is seeing more Anglicans moving to Catholicism than the north and Wales.

Reverend Linda Chester, Methodist minister writes: "Despite computers, ebooks and Kindles, millions of ordinary paper books are sold each week in all countries. I wonder if you can think to which book I am referring if I say, Surprisingly, it is the most shop-lifted book in the world.

"Over the years, the Bible has been banned, confiscated, smuggled and burned, but it still remains a bestseller and much in demand. This year we celebrate 400 years since the King James version was published.

"It was not the first Bible, but certainly the most influential.

"For the first time, the Bible was accessible to ordinary people. Countless people of each generation, from all backgrounds and cultures have found that God speaks to them through its pages. The Bible is accessible to ordinary people today, and there are many modern versions available.

"If you haven't read a modern translation, like The Message, why not give it a try? Luke's Gospel is a good place to start in Lent.

"Anglican dioceses are currently considering, and voting on, the Anglican Covenant, future church government and the first Diocese to do so, Wakefield, has rejected it.

Pupils' sustainability issues work with Ellen

A TEAM from Axe Valley Community College recently travelled to Wales to work on sustainability issues.

The team visited Cardiff on Monday, March 7th to take part in Ellen MacArthur Foundation Team Competition.

In short, teams were tasked to work out a strategy for life in a world where sending waste to landfill is not an option.

The Axe Valley team didn't win, the top spot being claimed by Honiton Community College, but in a letter to the Axminster college, Ellen MacArthur wrote: "The team at the foundation was extremely excited to have such an enthusiastic and engaging group of young people attend, and the atmosphere in the room was absolutely fantastic.

"The challenge set for these young people was not easy, nor was working out how to put forward their ideas around the task itself, but the outcome was exactly what we were hoping for.

"The students were amazing — showing how much more skilled they are than older generations at thinking outside the box.

"All the groups (and there were 21 teams) put forward really valid points and surprised us with their ability to re-think the future and re-design a system.

"The workshops gave the students the opportunity to work collaboratively, to consult with representatives from five of the leading blue-chip companies in the UK and France, to present their work to me and to experience first hand some leading-edge thinking about the circular economy.

"Just to be at the workshop was an achievement in itself as the places were highly competitive.

"We encourage the students to ensure they represent the experience in their CVs as they will be amongst only 1000 students across the UK to have participated in this ground-breaking event."

TONY JACKSON

Important site to the region

I'VE just spent a morning touring Black Hole Marsh, near Colyford, the quite astonishing nature reserve which is now recognised as a regionally important site.

David Walters, who produces and edits the outstanding twice-monthly newsletter which covers the Seaton marshes in detail and which is always backed up with brilliant photographs, met me at the newly-created car park behind Seaton cemetery which leads down to the reserve.

As we strolled, he explained that the large island-dotted lagoon with its quite outstanding hide, built at the end of a 50-yard wooden causeway jutting into the water, was in fact little more than a field two years ago. Yet already there is a sense of establishment and I can well imagine that the entire reserve, in a few years' time, will give the impression that it has been there for decades. Set close to Colyford Common and the Seaton Marsh Nature Reserves, Blackhole is an eight-hectare saltwater lagoon which uses a self-regulating tidal gate to allow salt water to enter the site, yet at the same time preventing flooding of adjacent land. It's very smart and very avant-garde.

Fraser Rush, is the East Devon District Nature Reserves Officer and, apart from Blackhole Marsh, has several other reserves under his wing though Blackhole, he smiled, is without question the jewel in the crown.

He said: "The council have set out to create a regionally important site, not only for bird-watching but also for people. Like all the leading reserves it's creating the best opportunities for wild life and, more specifically, the chance for people to experience wild life.

"There's nowhere in the south-west that has better facilities for bird-watchers. We have access to as many areas on the reserve as possible and we're creating high-grade access routes for people with mobility problems without disturbing the wildlife. In fact, we have plans for a total of five kilometres of access routes.

"Currently we have four bird-watching hides and a fifth, a tower hide overlooking the tidal river, is about to be constructed. In addition to all this, we're working with the tram company to try and create a new tram stop station so that people can alight and explore the marshes from the track."

A wide variety of birds, many of them passage migrants, use the marshes and even that morning, just before I arrived, a red kite had flown across the reserve, while in the past few weeks the first sand martins and swallows had arrived, there are numerous chiffchaffs, there have been wheatears, whimbrels and, of course, the famous Solitary Sandpiper, a first for this country and which drew up to a thousand twitchers from all over Britain, including two from the Outer Hebrides! Flocks of wigeon and teal, bar-tailed and black-tailed godwits, curlew and whimbrel will be seen in the winter months and, of course, there are little egrets, a small number of cattle egrets and regular passage ospreys. Apart from bird life, mammals now include a gradually expanding population of water-voles while otters are on site all the time.

We walked out along the wooden causeway to the hide set well into Blackhole lagoon lake and, through glasses, were able to watch shelduck, a pair of oystercatchers and the ubiquitous mallard, making use of the seven islands which have been created, several with different surfaces. On one grass-covered island an artificial nesting site has been constructed in the hope that a pair of shelduck will use it in lieu of a rabbit burrow which is their preferred site.

I understand from Fraser that there are plans in hand for an official opening of the Black Hole Marsh Nature Reserve in the near future and hope to be able to report on that occasion. Meanwhile, the reserve is open and visitors are really welcome. It doesn't matter if you don't know a chiffchaff from an osprey! Come along and be prepared to be astonished.

◆ NEWLYWEDS Robert Hill and Gemma Hamilton

Collie Dylan's part in service during wedding

ON Saturday, March 19th, Marine Robert Hill married Gemma Hamilton at St Giles's Church, Kilminster — and they had a helping paw too.

Teacher Gemma works part time at Thorncombe Primary school. Rob, who is from Reading in Berkshire, is with 42 Commando based at Bickley and is off to Afghanistan in April for a six-month tour.

The couple were assisted at the ceremony by their pet collie Dylan who ran up the aisle to deliver the rings to the best man.

The Reverend Alastair McCollum said it was a first for him at what was a very enjoyable service.

Dementia donation in memory of Tim

THE meeting of Axminster Ladies Phoenix Club on March 9th began with Lesley informing the group that a donation had been sent to the Dementia Society in memory of Beryl Moulding's husband, Tim, who died recently.

Lesley then apologised for the cancellation of the open meeting on March 1st due to illness.

It was suggested that the next open meeting may have to be held at a suitable hall, as there were now 40 members and if everyone turned up there would not be enough room in somebody's house.

A new date and venue will be arranged and members will be informed by telephone.

The trip to Bowood House and Lacock Village on June 20th is now arranged and a 39-seater coach has been hired.

The speaker this month was Linda Shepherd who talked and showed us slides of St Paul's Cathedral in London.

Linda is currently a guide at St Paul's and began her talk with an iconic photograph of St Paul's during the blitz in 1940.

There were a group of people at this time known as St Paul's Watch who constantly kept a look out for and put out incendiary bombs etcetera in the cathedral area.

In 1952, this group formed themselves into guides for St Paul's.

The Romans chose the original site for a large church to be built on Ludgate Hill and after the Great Fire of London in 1666, Christopher Wren was chosen to rebuild St Paul's.

He chose to build it in the Baroque Style, and he completed it in 1710 after only 35 years. Some achievement for those days.

Sir Christopher Wren was also an astronomer and he used his knowledge in this area when building the dome.

If you were to drop a plumb line from the top of the dome to the floor it would measure 365ft.

We were all enthralled with Linda's knowledge of the history of St Paul's and the City of London.

There's quite a few interesting pubs there too — but that's another story.

Next month's speaker is Lesley Davey talking about Mercy Ships.

Anyone who would like to come along to the next meeting, on April 13th at 2pm at United Reform Church Hall, will be made most welcome.

Members art work is assessed by president

THE new chairman of Seaton and District Art Society opened the March meeting by welcoming Alan Cotton, D Litt FRSA, president of the society, and thanking him for kindly agreeing to give his yearly talk on the assessment of members' work.

Prior to the critique, Alan expressed the importance of marketing for it is a big part of being an artist.

First of all research the galleries and see what they are exhibiting before contacting the gallery owner.

The best way to make contact with a gallery is to send in six photos of your work with an enclosed self addressed and stamped envelope.

Never just walk into a gallery with your exhibits. Also slides are not a good idea as the dealer will not generally bother to go and get a projector.

Once accepted by a gallery then you will need to produce your work and this requires energy, discipline and ambition.

Any gallery worth their salt is going to spend a lot of money on you as an artist and therefore exclusivity is essential for both parties to get the most out of the business relationship.

The paintings for Alan's assessment ranged from landscape, still life, portrait, architectural line drawing and even a cleverly executed collage.

There was a charming picture of two penguins entitled Kissing not Fighting, an excellent painting of pears which demonstrated the artist's skill in design; an unusual composition of a tiny flock of birds in a spatial field.

A full portrait of a Morris dancer and a painting of an air field at Castle Bromwich in 1938 were praised as was a delicately painted snow scene.

There were many exhibits and Alan Cotton looked at every one, giving advice where needed and helpful suggestions on technique, composition and above all how to make a picture come alive by manipulating the tonality of the painting.

Thanks were extended to Alan for his encouraging and enthusiastic response and members wished him every success on his imminent painting trip to Mount Everest.

The next monthly demonstration and talk at Seaton Methodist Church will be on Portrait in Pastels by Anthea de la Roche to be held on April 4th at 2pm. New members and visitors are welcome.

Piggin good food tasting

OLIVE presided at the March meeting of Awliscombe Women's Institute (WI) and introduced Paula Grant from Axminster who gave members some amusing stories about when she started outside catering and trading under the Piggins Good Catering name.

She brought along samples of her recipes and members had a taste of the goodies. Jill Leonard gave the vote of thanks.

Meg has organised many coach trips including ten pin bowling in Exeter.

Many members are going to the spring council meeting at Torquay where the celebrity speaker is Adam Hensom the popular Countryfile farmer.

Many birthday cards were given out and a basket of flowers for Kathleen's special birthday.

The winner of the competition for six homemade sweets was Mary Martin and the flower of the month winner was Irene Maynard with a lovely pink hyacinth.

The raffle was won by Daphne Carpenter. Julie Spiller organised a quiz guessing the names of flower pictures.

Tea hostesses were Sarah Abbott, Pam Chown, Margaret Dymond and Marion Ellett.

Easter bingo will be held in the village hall at 8pm on Monday, April 11th.

Successful memory cafe meet

THE Axminster Memory Cafe met on Tuesday, March 8th.

The afternoon was extremely successful. It took the form of Keep Fit with Trish of Age UK Devon.

Everyone got involved, carers, clients and volunteers. The group thought that sitting-down exercises would be so simple and they were, but as they went through them they could all feel that it was doing good.

Feet and hands were put to use with music, tapping and clapping got members going. There were small balls that helped to exercise the hands and arms, spikey balls for hands, arms and feet.

There were also strips of latex material which could be used to stretch the upper body or put under the feet for leg stretching. Larger balls were used for leg muscle control.

Trish explained that all the exercises would benefit everyone keeping us all mobile and able to help themselves, keeping everyone more independent and fit.

There was plenty of laughter and refreshments were served after all the hard work.

The next meeting will take place on Tuesday, April 12th between 2pm and 4pm at the Senior Citizens' Centre, Church Street, Axminster.

If you are a carer or suffer from dementia why not come along and join in the fun.

If you think you have a memory problem and are worried then come along, there will be someone on hand to give professional advice.

Beautiful dresses from top designers

KATE WALKER Bridal has recently opened in Honiton and offers designer bridal wear in a luxurious vintage style boutique. With over 10 years of bridal expertise and as the Designer of the award winning label Kate Sherford, Kate understands the requirements and expectations of a bride on her very special day.

Clients of Kate's receive a truly unique, personal and inspiring experience. "Every client will have the luxury of the boutique to themselves and my undivided attention for their appointments. It is so important that a bride feels comfortable with the boutique from which they choose to purchase their bridal gown. The process should be exciting and fun. Every bride has a hidden princess inside and it's probably the only time in a woman's life where she can really live her girlie dream, it's my passion to make that dream a reality" explains Kate.

Kate has carefully selected a range of gowns from designers that compliment her own Kate Sherford Collection; they are Paloma Blanca and Augusta Jones, offering a price range of £1000-£2500 with traditional and contemporary styling. Also available and designed by Kate, is the Kate Walker Collection. This is a premium bespoke service and is handmade on the premises.

Cakes with distinction

JOYCE WALLER has been baking and decorating wedding cakes for over twenty five years. She offers a friendly, professional and personal service designed to produce the perfect cake for your special day.

Joyce arranges initial consultations to discuss customers' requirements and is willing to design a cake one a one to one basis.

She is also open to requests seen perhaps in a magazine, and is able to copy designs. Cakes can be rich fruit, various sponges (vanilla, lemon, almond, coffee, chocolate).

Fillings for sponges can be jam and/or butter cream flavoured to your taste. Chocolate cakes are filled with a delicious chocolate ganache.

Joyce is also adventurous with the shape of the cakes: square, round, hexagon, petal, heart & teardrop. All decorations are hand crafted in sugar with perfection. Joyce is very creative and thoughtful in her design, creating sugar flowers to match the bridal bouquet, even making models of the church where the wedding is taking place.

These specialities ensure Joyce stands out amongst other cake makers.

Play it again, Chris...

After excelling in his Piano and Music Theory studies at school Chris Anderson went on to study at the renowned Gateway School of Music Recording, obtaining a merit in his Diploma in the summer of 1995.

At the end of 1995 he joined the team that was to become Metro. Metro have been behind many hits including Cher's multi-platinum award winning track 'Believe'. Chris' early career saw him cutting his teeth in production and song writing skills by studying and assisting many Metro projects including Lionel Richie, Tina Turner, Hall and Oates and Ricky Martin!

During this period Chris played and programmed on many recordings, but most notably, by artists such as Cher, Enrique Iglesias, Belinda Carlisle and A1.

As a songwriter Chris has also co-written with many accomplished writers and artists including Steve Lee, Ray St John, John Reid, Paul Barry, Nik Kershaw, Lemar and Kylie.

In 2001 Chris became one of the first recipients of the British Academy of Composers and Songwriters - 'Universal' Chart Newcomers Award.

Chris is available for weddings and has received continuous praise from his customers recognising his 'significant contribution' to wedding parties.

Chris has a portable piano facility for venues without their own piano and aims to provide a service that will complement your event, combined with a realistic pricing structure to suit each individual's requirements and a pricing structure to suit each individual's requirements and budget.

OUT & ABOUT

● DON'T miss the unique experience to see Coldharbour Mill's rare 1910 Pollit and Wiggell 300hp steam engine, 1867 Kittoe and Brotherhood Beam Engine and Lancashire Boiler operating under steam. And, not forgetting the fully restored Water Wheel built especially for the mill in 1821.

The engines run between 11am and 4pm and the Mill-site, shop and restaurant are open from 10.30am.

Tours of mill are also available on these days where you can see the process of turning combed worsted tops into knitting yarn on Victorian period spinning and twisting frames. Weaving can also be seen on Hattersley shuttle looms.

The Easter Steam Up day at Coldharbour Mill, Uffculme, will be on Sunday, April 24th and Monday, April 25th followed by the Whitsun bank holiday Steam Up days on Sunday, May 29th and Monday, May 30th.

For more details on Steam Up, and the workings and types of machines, go to www.coldharboursteam.org.uk.

● WHIMPLE Arts and Crafts Exhibition will be held on Saturday, April 16th at the Victory Hall, Whimble.

The exhibition, sponsored by the Whimble History Society, promises to be a wonderful showcase for the artistic talent that exists in the village and the surrounding area.

There are over 20 exhibitors who will be showing a wide range of crafts and, in some cases, there will be the opportunity to purchase the items on display.

The exhibition opens at midday and runs until 4pm. Refreshments will be available and entry will be £1 per person.

● HONITON Christian Aid Committee has organised a Christian Aid coffee morning which will be held at St Paul's Church, Honiton, on Saturday, April 2nd.

The coffee morning will run from 9.30am to 12noon. For more information call 01404 831164.

LIFE AND ART

FOLLOWING a sell-out season at Chichester Festival Theatre and successful West End run, the smash hit production of Jonathan Lynn and Antony Jay's play Yes, Prime Minister will be at the Theatre Royal, Plymouth, from Monday, April 18th until Saturday, April 23rd 2011.

Antony Jay and Jonathan Lynn, the original writers of the classic TV series Yes, Minister and Yes, Prime Minister have reunited for this anniversary production which has received universal critical and public acclaim during its initial season at Chichester Festival Theatre.

Prime Minister Jim Hacker and Cabinet Secretary Sir Humphrey Appleby face a country in financial meltdown. The only prospect of salvation comes from morally dubious allies — leading to deliciously comic consequences.

Antony Jay has enjoyed a distinguished career as a writer, broadcaster and producer. He was founder and editor of the BBC's legendary Tonight programme, is the editor of The Oxford Dictionary of Political Quotations, and author of Elizabeth R and two acclaimed documentaries on the Royal Family. He is a Commander of the Royal Victorian Order.

Jay and Lynn's Bafta award-winning political comedy Yes, Minister first aired on BBC2 in 1980 and ran until 1984. The sequel, Yes, Prime Minister ran from 1986 until 1988. Lynn and Jay also wrote three novels, The Complete Yes, Minister and Yes, Prime Minister, Volumes 1 and 2, which cumulatively sold more than a million copies in hardback, were on the British top-ten bestseller list for three years and have been translated into numerous languages.

For more information or to book tickets please contact Box Office on (01752) 230447 or online at www.theatreroyal.com.

Last weekend some of the members of 'Confi-dance' take their annual trip to the dance expo 'Move it' at London Olympia. Not only did the girls get to do dance classes but also rub shoulders with some dance favourites 'Twist and Pulse' and 'Flawless', 'Acai' and Tommy Franzen from 'So you think you can dance' and to top it all Sara Perry had arranged a surprise visit to London's Pineapple Studios to take part in a professional dance class. Sara says: 'I was so proud of the girls as the class was challenging and they all kept up really well. I told them if they still want to go onto a performing arts school to imagine doing that class seven times a day, seven times a week. One thing is for sure they won't be complaining in my classes anymore.'

On April 2nd Confi-dance will be presenting two performances (matinee 3.00pm and evening 7.00pm) of 'Communication Anonymous' an original play with music. Written and directed by Sara Perry, creator of Confi-dance the show itself is an interesting take on the world of technology and the serious effects it may have on our generation today which is sure to give the audience something to talk about long after the curtain has come down.

A contemporary script, the plot tells of a group of children who have been stripped of their games consoles, mobiles and computers, finding themselves thrown into a game of survival. Will they make it to the next level? Will they defeat their demons? Will they make the choice to change the future? Those answers are for you to find out by coming along to watch. This is a particularly special project as some of the pupils from Shute primary will also be taking part. Involving these children the venture was an idea that came to Sara when she was offered the chance to teach an after school club. She thought not only would the kids get to perform what they learned for an audience but also allow them the opportunity to integrate with different children from other schools.

Sara is so excited by this idea that she plans to give the option not only to other independent schools in the area but will be getting involved in Axminster twinnings Association this June which involves some French dance students taking part in a workshop with some of Sara's students. 'Adaptability is important in theatre and being able to mix with different types of people and is I feel something that most performers are likely to experience.'

Tickets for 'Communication Anonymous' at £5.00 each are available now at Seaton Town Hall box office, (Please note the seats are numbered.)

OUT & ABOUT

● HOSPISCARE in Honiton is hosting an array of events next month.

First up is an evening of words and music, With A Smile and a Song, on Saturday, April 9th at St Paul's Church at 7.30pm.

On Tuesday, April 12th the charity is hosting a bargain sale at the Mackarness Hall, Honiton, from 9am and on Tuesday, April 19th there will be a supper evening, also at the Mackarness Hall, from 7pm.

For more details contact Mary on 01404 43196 or Eileen on 01404 831866.

● PIANO Pieces 2, the second concert by pupils of Sarah Smith will be held on Sunday, April 10th at Charmouth Community Hall.

Tickets to the concert, which starts at 4pm, cost £3.50 — with free entry to children — and all profits will go to the NSPCC.

Afternoon tea and cakes will be served after the concert.

For tickets contact Sarah on 01297 561550.

● MUSBURY Primary School's all-new, enthusiastic PTFA will start its fundraising campaign with an Easter Fayre on Saturday, April 2nd.

The aim of the PTFA is to make it better for the attending children and to raise enough funds to build an outdoor classroom for learning and fun, for a new climbing frame and educational outdoor equipment.

The Easter Fayre, from 10.30am to 1.30pm, will be held at Musbury Village Hall and there will be a multitude of stalls, a raffle and refreshments.

Shakespeare a-round

Its annual spring seasons in Bristol's finest studio theatre has brought national and international recognition. For this two-week season in Exeter, the Northcott's main stage will be converted to a theatre in the round to suit the company's direct and intimate style.

The production comes immediately from its six-week run at the Tobacco Factory.

Kate Tyrrell, executive director at Exeter Northcott, said: "We're really lucky to have a brilliantly designed theatre that works well in different formats. We tried in-the-round seating out last year and it created a really exciting space, so we've been looking for an opportunity to enable our audiences to enjoy this way of staging work again. A partnership with the nationally acclaimed Shakespeare at the Tobacco Factory is absolutely perfect."

The Comedy of Errors is one of William Shakespeare's earliest plays and certainly one of his wittiest. Separated as babies by a storm at sea, two sets of identical twins have been brought up in different countries in ignorance of each other. When fate intervenes a second time and brings them (unknowingly) together in Ephesus, a series of farcical mishaps ensue.

The chaos caused by their mistaken identities leads to marital confusions, wrongful beatings, near seductions, an arrest and accusations of infidelity, theft and even demonic possession. In short, this really is a 'comedy of errors.'

Director Andrew Hilton said: "We are always looking to 'export' our productions, and changing the context of a production is always an exciting challenge, but our large cast sizes and our in-the-round format make it difficult for many other theatres to take us. We are absolutely delighted that Exeter Northcott wished to host us and that it can reconfigure its main stage to make this transfer possible. We hope it may be the start of a long-standing partnership."

The Comedy of Errors visits the Exeter Northcott Theatre from Tuesday, May 3rd to Saturday, May 14th with performances at 7.30pm each evening and Saturday matinees at 2.30pm.

Weekday schools' matinees take place on May 5th and 12th at 1.30pm.

Tickets can be purchased from the Exeter Northcott box office on 01392 493493 or online at www.exeternorthcott.co.uk.

Performances will take place at Stockland Village Hall on Friday, April 1st at 7.30pm and Lydford Nicholls Hall on Saturday, April 2nd at 7.30pm.

This is part of the Villages in Action spring programme of events.

Copies of the Villages in Action programme are available from libraries, tourist information centres or direct from 01363 773660. Events are also listed online at www.villagesinaction.co.uk.

Dance group presents its original show

On Saturday, April 2nd Confi-dance will be presenting two performances of Communication Anonymous an original play with music at Seaton Town Hall.

Written and directed by Sara Perry, creator of Confi-dance, the show itself is an interesting take on the world of technology and the serious effects it may have on our generation today which is sure to give the audience something to talk about long after the curtain has come down.

A contemporary script, the plot tells of a group of children who have been stripped of their games consoles, mobiles and computers, finding themselves thrown into a game of survival.

This is a particularly special project as some of the pupils from Shute Primary School will also be taking part.

Involving these children the venture was an idea that came to Sara when she was offered the chance to teach an after-school club.

The show's two performances will be at 3pm and 7pm.

Tickets for Communication Anonymous cost £5 and are available from Seaton Town Hall box office. For details call 01297 23474 or 07939 946780.

OUT & ABOUT

MINING its trademark vein of absurdist humour and taking inspiration from writers such as Gogol and Bulgakov, Publick Transport presents a new comedy.

The play is set in a forgotten office deep within the bowels of a Russian governmental building where two civil servants jostle for power, one a puffed up bureaucrat in search of a job description, the other an unidentified inspector, the purpose of whose visit remains frighteningly vague.

Reluctant to commit to specific thought for fear of showing ignorance of the party line — which changes hourly — they make idle conversation out of which is extrapolated the deepest meaning, while their attempts at political correctness only result in grammatical incorrectness.

Energy boost

KITCHEN caffeine trips, excursions to the office biscuit stash and urgent discussions about sweets — or the indecent lack of them — dominate the day-to-day life of many workplaces.

But those colleagues who reject the need for caffeine and sugar stimuli, and sit under a Ready Brek glow with their cup of herbal tea and plate of sad-looking greens, tend to be treated by colleagues with suspicion — and ignored on the tea round.

According to nutritionist Rachael Anne Hill, there are ways we can all increase our energy levels and reduce cravings for custard creams, without resorting to any drastic lifestyle changes. And the GI Diet is one of them.

"The body absorbs energy from food at different rates," says Hill. "Using something called the Glycemic Index (GI) you can find out if a food will absorb energy quickly, and so have a high GI level, or vice versa."

Eating low-GI foods, she adds, can help individuals avoid energy spikes and slumps throughout the day, as well as having other health benefits.

"These foods will help prevent your blood sugar levels rapidly rising and then falling during the day, making it easier to concentrate while at work. A diet rich in low-GI foods can help you eat less, as you stay fuller longer, and they have nutritional advantages too."

Oaty plum crumbles (Serves 4)

GI Tip: Plums, like cherries, apples and pears, are a particularly low-GI fruit. The crumble topping is made with jumbo oats, which helps to keep the GI of the overall dessert low, too.

750g ripe plums, stoned and sliced
4tbsp water

1-2tbsp light muscovado sugar
Half-fat creme fraiche, low-fat custard or ice cream, to serve

For the crumble topping:
100g wholemeal self-raising flour
3tbsp polyunsaturated margarine
70g dark muscovado sugar
80g jumbo oats
1/4tsp freshly grated nutmeg
Caster sugar, for sprinkling

Place the plums, water and sugar in a saucepan. Heat until simmering, then simmer for 10-15 minutes, until the plums are just cooked and soft.

Meanwhile, to make the crumble topping, put the flour in a mixing bowl, add the margarine and rub it in with the tips of your fingers. The mixture should resemble breadcrumbs. Add the sugar, oats and nutmeg, and mix.

Divide the plums and their cooking liquid between four ramekins. Top with the crumble mixture, then sprinkle with a little caster sugar.

Bake in a preheated oven at 180C/Gas Mark 4 for 15-20 minutes, until the topping is golden and the fruit is bubbling. Serve warm with some half-fat creme fraiche, low-fat custard or ice cream.

Variation: Replace the plums with apples, cherries, pears, apricots, peaches or mixed berries. For some extra spice, add one tablespoon of grated fresh ginger to the crumble mixture.

Seaton Tennis Club host Open day to celebrate Clubmark award

Seaton Tennis Club will be holding a free Open day on Saturday 2nd April between 9.30 and 4.00 at the Seaton Tennis Club in Court Lane. As part of the event, the Club will be celebrating their Clubmark award which will be presented, on the day, by an official from the LTA.

Adults and juniors, of all abilities, are welcome. It will be a fun day with plenty of action and a chance to meet, and play against, other club members. A number of major companies, from the tennis world, have offered items which will be raffled and awarded as prizes.

For beginners, there will be chance to try out the game. For more experienced players, there will be the opportunity to try out sample rackets and have a knock against, and possibly gain a few tips from, some of the club's professional coaches. Prizes will be awarded in the 'Beat the Pro' competition.

Juniors will be able to see whether they like, and have ability, for the game by trying out mini tennis with rackets and balls supplied by the club. Prizes will also be awarded for junior competitions.

Free refreshments will be available throughout the day in the clubhouse.

The membership secretary will be on hand to answer questions and to hand out membership forms, for those wishing to join.

The Clubmark award is an accreditation in recognition of the club's 'best practices' policies and procedures. In particular, the club promotes an environment for the juniors to have fun and be coached to enable them to continue to the highest of standards. The club pays particular attention to the LTA child protection guidelines.

The club is one half of the Seaton Cricket and Tennis club. The Cricket club is holding their Nat West Cricket Force day at the same time so there will be plenty of activity on that side of the ground as well. There will be an opportunity to talk to the Cricket members and to join the club if they wish.

Eagle novel on screen

A BRAVE and noble son atones for the sins of his father in Kevin Macdonald's swords and togas epic, based on the novel The Eagle Of The Ninth by Rosemary Sutcliff.

Set in the wilds of 140 AD England and Scotland but partly filmed in Hungary, The Eagle pits the might of the Rome Empire against the barbarism of the indigenous tribes, who slit the throats of their badly behaved children.

Channing Tatum strides manfully into the breach as the emotionally and physically scarred hero of the hour, coping well with the rigours of Jeremy Brock's screenplay that includes some bone-crunching battle sequences.

Underpinning the barbarism is the unlikely friendship between master and slave, whose distrust must be put to one side as they venture north of Hadrian's Wall, in search of a military trophy.

In 120 AD, the entire Ninth Legion disappears without trace in Scotland and its standard, a golden eagle, is lost forever to the eternal shame of Rome.

The commander of those soldiers also vanishes and 20 years later, his son, Marcus Aquila, accepts a posting in Roman-occupied southern Britain in order to learn the truth about his father's demise.

The young soldier is badly injured protecting his men and he recuperates with the help of his uncle and slave boy Esca, whom Aquila saves from certain death in the gladiator's ring.

Once he has regained his strength and mobility, Aquila heads north in search of answers accompanied by Esca, a member of the tribe of savages responsible for slaying the Ninth.

The Eagle hinges on the rapport between the leads and Tatum is impressive, bringing a brooding physicality and emotional vulnerability to his role.

Bell pales by comparison but gets his moment to shine in a touching scene, when Esca defies the orders of Aquila and refuses to leave the badly wounded Roman to his untimely fate.

With Tatum and Sutherland cast as Romans, British co-stars must adopt unconvincing American accents for the sake of continuity.

Unknown after a freak traffic accident

DR Martin Harris (Liam Neeson) travels to Berlin with his beautiful wife Elizabeth (January Jones) to attend a biotech conference at the invitation of Professor Bressler (Sebastian Koch).

As they arrive at the hotel, Martin realises that he has left a briefcase containing his passport at the airport and he jumps into a taxi to collect it.

En route, there is a freak accident and Martin slips into a coma, waking four days later in hospital with fractured memories.

Discharging himself from hospital, he races back to the hotel and is delighted to find his wife... except Liz doesn't recognise him and another man (Aidan Quinn) with the same name is on her arm.

Suitably confused, Martin hunts down taxi driver Gina (Diane Kruger), who was involved in the accident.

With nowhere else to turn, Martin contacts former Stasi officer Ernst Jurgen (Bruno Ganz) to try to get some answers.

2,000 C-Class changes

TWO big numbers you need to be aware of when considering Mercedes-Benz's revised C-Class: 2,000 changes have been made to the car and, since it was launched in 2007, more than one million have been sold.

Through the decades the C-Class has charted a steady course straddling both sporty and luxury sides of the compact premium experience. In saloon form — there's also a revised estate model — Mercedes has always aimed to offer elements of its larger models at a more affordable price point.

You can't stand still in this business and, with ever increasing focus on emissions, consumption and refinement, Mercedes has thoroughly revamped its core model.

First up are the obligatory cosmetic changes. The car's nose and tail have been tweaked slightly — radiator, lights, that sort of thing — and there's still the visual difference between SE-Elegance and Sport models, with the latter boasting a subtle AMG branded bodykit, AMG wheels and a lower ride height.

Inside there's a new dashboard design, the car's colour display screen is now fixed in the upper level of the fascia and the general impression is a welcome shift to a simpler layout inspired in part by the CLS.

Some things don't change, though. The cabin ambience is as refined as ever, and the wide choice of trim, seat and instrument colour options ensure that both young and old buyers are catered for.

Mercedes hopes everyone will benefit from the car's reduced running costs, in particular company car drivers opting for four-cylinder diesel variants. Bold claims are made that every new engine is both more powerful and more efficient than its predecessor.

The petrol range starts with the 156 horsepower C180 and rises to a beefy 204 horsepower C250. On the diesel front there's a 136 horsepower C200 CDI, a 170 horsepower C220 CDI and 204 horsepower C250 CDI.

While all cars come with a six-speed manual gearbox as standard, there's now the option of an improved seven-speed auto across the range. Another standard feature is the inclusion of engine stop-start technology across the range to further boost the car's eco credentials.

The best news of all is the complete lack of compromise when behind the wheel. Historically manual transmission Mercedes cars haven't been that great, although recent years have seen this trend successfully reversed.

The gearbox in the C220 CDI, like other variants, delivers a slick, accurate performance. Engine refinement is also first rate, while performance is more than you could ask for. A willing unit, the 2.1-litre, four-cylinder is quiet and responsive in equal measure.

Ride comfort is also very good, with the C-Class offering a sensible balance of comfort and agility. Pitch and roll is minimal, while the Sport variant's tuned suspension and bigger wheels don't harm but rather enhance the experience if you're an enthusiastic driver. And if you select a petrol-driven car the experience is broadly similar, only the engine is that bit quieter.

Along with the improved driving experience, the C-Class comes with a wider choice of standard and optional equipment. There's a heavy bias towards safety kit, with a lot of 'big car' stuff from the E, CLS and S-Class having trickled down to the C-Class.

From lane departure and blind spot warning systems to active dipping headlights and intelligent cruise control, the car isn't short of helpful toys. The same is true on the comfort front, with the optional sat-nav supported by standard fit climate and cruise control, a multi function steering wheel and the usual electric mirrors and windows.

UK buyers can choose from three grades — SE, Elegance and Sport — with the latter adding a subtle AMG bodykit and branded wheels, lower ride height, speed sensitive steering, sports front seats, a three spoke steering wheels and gearchange paddles for auto gearbox variants.

In summary, the car looks a little sharper from some angles but there's still no mistaking what it is.

The C-Class is a hugely significant model for Mercedes, and customer loyalty is an important consideration.

What you won't fail to notice is improvements made inside and out of sight.

From the car's more polished cabin to the significant gains made in the driving experience and at the pump, the C-Class has successfully evolved in all the right areas.

FIRST WITH THE LOCAL SPORT — EVERY WEEK

Tim is off to a flying start with event win

By KATE WILLIAMS

kate@findlenews.co.uk

LOCAL event rider Tim Rogers celebrated an excellent start to this year's British Eventing season with a win at Aldon Horse Trials, Somerset, on March 18th-20th.

It was also a great start to 2011 for Tim, of Wyke, Axminster, who is now running his own competition and livery yard at his east Devon home after spending last season based at Lucy Wiegiersma's yard near Okehampton.

Riding his homebred bay gelding, Corrieview Owen, Tim was thrilled to win the Open Intermediate Under 21 trial.

The pair had a good dressage with a score of 33.2 which, according to the young rider, was helped by the fact he had a new saddle, rather than the borrowed one he was using last year.

With clear show jumping and cross country rounds — inside the time — this brought them to the top of the leader board.

Tim said the going could not have been better and he felt it was a good day to go for the time which the duo achieved easily.

He added: "The cross country course caused some problems, especially at the narrow fence coming out of a small copse; this was near the end of the course. The other fence that riders had trouble at was the narrow brush coming out of the water."

Tim was also placed 4th on Sally Munden's Bwana in the novice section on the Friday. Tim and Bwana were one of only three horses on the Friday to go clear inside the time in the novice sections.

Tim is hoping to be selected this year to go to the Young Rider Europeans at Blair Castle, Scotland, in August where 12 GB riders will be taken, and this win at his first of the two one-day trials will hopefully help his campaign to be selected.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

AXE Valley Runners (AVR) have taken part in the Nightrunner recently.

The Nightrunner starts as night falls and the runners take in seven miles of east Devon countryside — starting from Beer.

Dave Mutter, of AVR, said: "A monster rocket set the 78 runners off from the Anchor Inn at Beer up the hill and over the common to Branscombe. Spectators were treated to a long row of dancing lights like some enormous giant alien invasion in the clear night air. Tiverton Harrier Chris Gill improved on his third place of last year, knocking five minutes off his time to win in an impressive 53:51."

"Perhaps the most impressive performance of the evening was first AVR finisher Sam Anning who made up for struggling at the Grizzly to finish second in 55:55."

Dave added: "We are indebted to Nightrunner sponsors, The Anchor Inn in Beer, who successfully fed and watered many of the finishers following the race and the pub was buzzing with excitement and tall tales."

"It was a great running experience with much positive feedback. The success of the Nightrunner of course was mainly due to the numerous marshals who gave their time freely, encouraging and guiding runners through the dark night and for this Richard Hale and his organising committee are very grateful."

As part of his preparations for the Edinburgh marathon Graham Newton ran the inaugural Cornwall Fire and Rescue Service Half Marathon on Sunday, March 27th.

The run, with the exception of approximately three miles, was mostly off road, over 13.3 miles of undulating lanes, fields and woods of Bodmin Moor.

Over 200 runners took part in the beautiful sunshine, and the race was won by Mark Heard of Launceston Running Club in 1:25:52. Graham was pleased to finish 24th in 1:41:23 and was the first over 60 finisher.

Crewkerne Running Club put on supported long distance runs aimed at anyone competing in the Virgin London Marathon on Sunday, April 17th.

AVR Eleanor Wood decided to have a go and was really pleased with her run. She completed 22 miles in 2:57, a very good pace which has given her much more confidence to complete the London run next month.

HONITON NETBALL LEAGUE

Summer league starts

Division One

*Keeley's Angels 37 Upplowman 32
Wasps 37 Bo-Peeps 17
'Visions' 37 Tip Top Trees 19
Flamingos 46 Bampton 21*

THE summer league got underway with a full house of fixtures in division one — with some amazing similarities — three of the winning teams all scored 37 goals.

The season started with defending champions Keeley's Angels up against Upplowman. The game was a close encounter, with Viv Grant in great form for Upplowman whilst Cara Monaghan caught the eye for Angels.

The teams could not be separated and at half way it was all square at 18 each. It wasn't until the third period that Keeley's nosed ahead — by a single goal to lead 27-26. Having got their nose in front they were not minded to slip up and managed to increase their lead to win by a 37-32 margin. Wasps also scored 37 goals when they came up against Bo-Peeps.

With Nicky Field playing well it was Wasps who led 10-5 at quarter time before increasing this to 20-8 at halfway. The third and final periods saw Wasps pull further ahead despite some good work from Debbie Wheeler. The final score was a 37-17 win for Wasps and left Bo-Peeps without a point.

The third team recording 37 goal score was 'Visions from their game with newly promoted Tip Top Trees. By half way 'Visions had a comfortable 21-8 lead. The third period was more even with 3Ts chasing a 12-26 deficit at the start of the final quarter. In the final period the Trees did just enough to earn themselves a point from their 37-19 defeat.

The final game saw Flamingos playing Bampton — and this was Bampton's first game in the top flight. With Trish Warwick in great form the Flamingos opened up an early lead to be 23-9 up at half way. With Claire Venn enjoying her role at centre Bampton had slightly the better of the third period to go into the final session 19-32 adrift. The recovery didn't last though as Flamingos ended the game as they started to win by 46-21.

Division Two

*Sidmouth Toucans 0 CMC 10
Hi Q 43 Lyme Bay 11*

With a fixture misunderstanding in division two only one game took place — that between Hi Q and Lyme Bay. Because Toucans did not turn up for their match against CMC match in accordance with league rules it was agreed by the committee that the game be awarded to CMC and that Sidmouth would be deducted three points.

With the effervescent Julie Churchill in bubbly form for Hi Q they proved too strong for Lyme Bay, despite some good work from Harriet Secrett. Hi Q led from the start and ended the game victors by a comfortable 43-11 winning margin.

Under 13 team celebrates becoming league winners

COLYTON Under 13 football team became league champions when they won their home game at Colyton Memorial Playing Field on Saturday morning, and still have three games to play.

The team has moved to the Exeter and District League Division Two from the East Devon League.

Their win on Saturday against Bradninch made it 16 wins out of 17. Manager Nigel Broom thanked the boys and their parents for their support throughout the season. Thanks also went to their sponsors Selway Construction and VCB Fowler.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

Sun Am Semi Finals

IT was the turn of the Sun Am Semi Finalists this week with the weather decidedly far from the biting cold members had played through to this point.

It's hard on any pair, having got this far, to fail at this stage but the end results leave J Drew and D Noar against I Drew and J Spiller in the coming final.

Meanwhile, the 4BBB fun game organised for the rest of the club resulted in an astonishingly tight finish with the top three teams all scoring 40 points and divided by count back only. The winners were adjudged to be T Wood and V Wood ahead of M Kent and B Bilyard with P Beck and M Matthews in third.

Tuesday Mixed

The sun shone on 20 players for this week's Mixed Competition. The format was Alternative Shots Medal — can be a tough format if one or both of you are “off-line”. With steady play being the order of the day Dot Grove and Chris Poole carded a Net 69 taking first place. In second place were Andrea Squire and Terry Dimond with Net 71. Third place with Net 74.5 were Ro Poole and Alan Booth.

Ladies Section

Another brilliant day of golf was had by the ladies section this week with an 18 hole shot-gun start heralding a fun game in which everyone was a winner. 43 ladies played in this “Bring and Win” competition with excellent scores being the order of the day.

Two scores were to count in this Stableford competition with the top team of Chris Pearce, Andrea Squire and Susan Hyde coming in with an outstanding 83 points and having first choice of prizes on the colourful table.

Senior Section

What a difference a week makes, persistent rain last time out resulting in only 30 bedraggled golfers completing their round and this week wall to wall sunshine for 71 happy seniors in a Texas Scramble.

Played in threes with a combined handicap of a tenth these competitions are closely fought with fractions of a stroke deciding the outcome.

The winners were the two Keiths, Crane and Thomas assisted by John Chew with a score of 63.4. Second place with just 0.3 of a stroke more were the trio of Derek Herrington, Steve Blundell and Rob Canterbury.

Third were Peter Morgan, Norman Runciman and Ken Beake with 64.2 just edging out Pat Purtell, Phil Faulkner and Bob Bilyard on 64.4. Seven twos were recorded to show that a hot putter definitely works better.

The match season has now started and the traditional opener is the closely contested competition with Exeter Golf and Country Club.

A narrow victory by three and a half to two and a half for Exeter gives Honiton optimism for the return home leg.

AXE CLIFF GOLF CLUB

UNFORTUNATELY for the Seniors they were unable to play last Friday due to the dreadful weather.

However the main club competed for the Daily Mail Foursomes last Sunday with the tough format of Foursomes Medal.

The winners with a superb nett 68 were Andrew and Cyril Hellier. Second with a nett 69 were Geoff Greenslade and Dougie Board. The ladies enjoyed warm weather on Wednesday when they competed for the first EWGA Medal of this year.

The winner was Sandra Walker (16) with a better back nine than Liz Wheeldon (25) in second place.

EAST DEVON SHORT MAT BOWLS

BEER'S point at Seaton Cliff virtually guarantees that they will retain their Afternoon Champions status.

Second-placed Uptottery's 5-3 home win keeps them with a mathematical chance but they need to overcome Beer's 166 shot advantage in their two remaining games, both away from home, and Beer would need to lose their remaining games, both at home. St Teresa's are one of the teams in competition for the runner-up place after their 6-2 home win.

They are now fifth in this division. Seaton Cliff A edge back towards Division One with their point gained at Sidbury, who, with their home win, 6-2, moved to third while Sidford B, 5-3 winners away from home, moved to fourth. Each of these is within striking distance of promotion places.

In the knock-out Beer won four of their home games and drew one to edge out West Hill by the narrowest of margins.

They will now meet Colyton to claim a place in the finals.

AXMINSTER INDOOR BOWLS

AXMINSTER Indoor Bowls Club continued its recent good run of form, winning three of the four games played since the last report.

The ladies did well to beat the Devon Ladies Indoor Bowls Association team at home by 63 to 47 shots with a top rink of Pam Clark, Chris Todd, Jean Kesterton, and Margaret Crompton (25-9) but lost their two-rink match at Budleigh (27-35), narrowly losing on both rinks. The men enjoyed a comfortable home win over Sidmouth in their triples match (76-35) with Brian Cursley, Gerald Knott, and Eric Skeemer in excellent form (33-10).

In the only mixed friendly played we managed a good home win over Taunton Deane (69-40) with all rinks winning — June Teale, Pam Clark, Jean Kesterton, and Brian Clark (24-12), Les Monk. Ann Clayton, Chris Todd, and Margaret Crompton (25-13), and John Chance, Stephen Apsey, David Harris, and Lilian Lovatt (20-15).

Owing to a mix-up over dates unfortunately the home game against Feniton was not played.

Over 30 members turned up for Captains' Day on Sunday which was enjoyed by all.

A round-robin competition was followed by an excellent buffet.

ONCE again the weekend's match proved to be a hard-fought one, with the opposition leaving the field as the winners by the one and only goal.

There was little to choose between the two teams; and play seemed to travel fairly equally in both directions and from side to side.

It was during later stages of the first half that the visitors were able to find a gap in the Honiton defence, and slip it past the goalkeeper.

Although both sides had their opportunities to add further goals to the score line, none materialised into a restart to the game; and so at the final whistle it was the visiting South Devon side which took the victory off the pitch.

Practices continue to take place each Tuesday evening from 8pm to 9.30pm at Cullompton.

Transport leaves from Dowell Street Car Park at 7.30 pm. If any girls (over 16) or ladies, regardless of current skills, would like to join these sessions, and require transport, please be at the meeting place by 7.30 pm.

Player of the Match was Kathryn Empson.

SEATON Cricket Club is on the lookout for volunteers to help during a Natwest sponsored Cricket Force Weekend.

The event takes place on Saturday and Sunday, April 2nd and 3rd and volunteers will be tasked with getting the ground ready for the club's first game in May.

Seaton Cricket Club chairman Peter Anderson said: "The aim is for our club members to come to the ground on Saturday and Sunday morning together with any volunteers from the local community who wish to help us."

"We have to paint the outside of the pavilion as well as the sightscreens, some benches and the inside of the scoreboard."

Volunteers are asked to meet at the cricket club at 10am.

Natwest Cricket Force is a national volunteering event taking place throughout the country.

Cricket club treasurer Judith Wheeler added: "The tennis club has an open day on Saturday, April 2nd so we hope that there will be plenty of people at the club who are volunteers or wish to join as members of the tennis and cricket clubs."

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

LAST week, Honiton Running Club's Nick Bradley-Carter ran the Reading Half Marathon. It was the second time he had taken part in the race and finished in 1:51:21 in 4,362nd place.

There was a really great atmosphere with over 12,000 runners and lots of spectators round the course cheering the runners on. The race was won by Simon Kasimili in a time of 1:03:07.

On the same day, Stephen Boyes ran the Cotswold Marathon. He was delighted to have managed to run the three lap course, with one big hill on each lap, in 3:39:34. The race was won by Paul Davies of Centurion RC in a time of 2:57:08.

Heather Foundling-Hawker won the individual Bronze Medal at the British 100k Championships in Perth, Scotland, at the weekend. This was a 2km lap course beside the River Tay. This now means Heather has secured her place as part of the Great Britain 100km team at the world championships in Holland later this year.

It was a very busy weekend for the London Marathoners with most getting their longest runs in the bag.

Jo Davey and Sandra Thorpe did 20 miles along the Exeter canal and Nikki Campbell and Louise Saunders ran from Dawlish to Exeter and back, a total of 22 miles. Warren Oak and Judy and Steve Davey also ran 22. They went to South Petherton to take part in Crewkerne Running Club's fully supported training run. The route is circular and relatively flat. Support was great with cyclists on route for the whole way.

COLYTON FC

Devon and Exeter League
Division 2
Colyton 2
Broadclyst 0

WITH both Richard Tratt and Wayne Waddon missing, manager Keith Somers had little choice but to put skipper Paul Millman into central defence instead of his usual midfield role.

Millman, along with Gary May, were imperious all afternoon restricting the Broadclyst attack to a couple of long-range efforts.

Midfield duo Jason Potter and Ed Busby protected the back four, allowing George Moore a free role to pull the Coly strings.

This was no more evident than when Moore played a defence-splitting ball to lone striker Callum Somers to outpace the Clyst backline and selflessly draw the keeper before squaring to left winger Nathan Maddocks who rolled the ball into an empty net.

Somers, who occupied the Broadclyst rearguard tirelessly, could have had a hat-trick before the break but for three outstanding saves by keeper Paul White, who was far and away the opposition's star man.

After 35 minutes, Moore again made a slide rule pass to Ed Busby who coolly slotted into the bottom corner from 25 yards.

The second goal knocked the stuffing out of the visitors as Colyton took total control.

The second period saw the Tanners test White time and again, but he refused to be breached, the most notable was tipping over a rasping drive from replacement and newly appointed assistant manager Simon McClellan.

The man of the match award chosen by Gordon Parsons went to Nathan Maddocks. Working the full-back for 90 minutes, he crowned a fine performance with the first goal.

Colyton boss Keith Somers said: "This was a very good all-round team performance and a much needed three points.

"Hopefully this will spur the team on for the run-in."

DEVON AND EXETER LEAGUE

SEATON Town opened a seven-point gap again at the top of the Premier division thanks to a highly entertaining 6-3 win against third place St Martins.

Dan Norman netted twice with singles from Josh French, Ben Ede, Miles Alphonse and Ollie Hight.

Feniton climbed further towards safety with a 2-1 win at home to Heavitree Social Reserves.

Paul Dowling and Jamie Easterbrook scored for Fenny, Wayne King for Heavitree.

Honiton Town won just their second game this season 2-0 at relegation rivals Halwill. Shaun Lapping and Dan Broom were on target.

OFFWELL FC

IT was a very disappointing result for Offwell after a very good performance.

The team knew they had played well when the opposition's manager told them they deserved to win.

The players hit the crossbar and upright on countless occasions, but just couldn't score.

The only goal came from what was generally considered a weak penalty, slotted home just out of reach of the keeper.

Man of the Match, as chosen by match day sponsors Powershoes, was awarded to Dan Edwards for his tireless effort.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE ROUND-UP

COMPETITION IS HOTTING UP

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

THE Division One promotion contest is really hotting up with league leaders Crewkerne Town and closest rivals Millwey Rise and Winsham all winning at the weekend.

With just six games left to play only four points separate first to third and Crewkerne boss Nick Murphy is expecting a thrilling end to the campaign.

"It is a great end to the season and good to see so many clubs still involved," said Murphy. "Six weeks ago it seemed to be Winsham's title to lose but now it has swung the other way and it is probably ours. But I have said all along that while it would be great to win the title promotion is the priority."

Crewkerne dented Netherbury's promotion challenge with a 4-0 away win on Saturday thanks to goals from Jamie Spurdle, Adam Dawe, Paul Gold and Aaron Sweet.

Millwey Rise kept up the pressure with a 7-1 drubbing of Norton Athletic with Paul Otreba grabbing two goals and further strikes from Jason Webber, Ashley Phillips, Nathan Womersley, Sam Dibling and Adam Whitehouse.

"I think we have the better run-in as most of our games are at home," said Featherstone. "We now have a big week ahead as we have Winsham at home on Saturday and we still have Crewkerne at our place so it is in our hands."

Winsham did their goal difference no harm with a 8-0 victory at Perry Street with Henry Broom scoring half of those goals, John Paul adding another two with Joe Simmons and Darren Spurdle completing the rout.

"This is a very exciting end to the season and much too close to call," said Winsham manager Phil Loaring. "I would say Crewkerne are slight favourites but we now have a big couple of days as we are at Millwey Rise on Saturday and then take on Crewkerne at our place next Tuesday."

"It is definitely going to be a tough and entertaining run-in."

Farway United are not involved in the Premier Division title race but they just about guaranteed their league status for another season with a 4-1 win over Ilminster with a double from James Salter and further strikes from Ben Williams and Ernie Stobbs.

"That was an important three points for us and I would like to think we are safe now although we have a tough run-in," said Farway boss Andy Bailey.

In the title race leaders South Petherton avenged their recent Challenge Cup defeat at the hands of Combe St Nicholas Reserves with a 4-1 win to stretch their lead to five points. James Cattigan hit two with other goals from Paul Dexter and Jon Hayter after Dan O'Connor had given Combe an early lead.

Chasers Beaminster and Lyme Regis had to share the points in a hard-fought 1-1 draw with goals from Dean Newman and Mark Bailey (penalty) respectively.

In Division Four veteran 46-year-old Phil Hooper hit a hat-trick as West & Middle Chinnock thrashed Chard Rangers 9-1 to close the gap on leaders Hinton St George. Danny Rudge also grabbed three with Nathan Davenport, Ashley Cooper and Harry Hebditch completing the rout.

Shepton Beauchamp booked their place in the semi finals of the Daisy Hutchings Cup with a 2-1 win over Dowlish, with goals from Dan Smith and Chris Hastings (penalty).

SOUTH WEST PENINSULA — AXMINSTER TOWN FC

Carlsberg South West
Peninsula League
Division One East

Axminster Town 1
Stoke Gabriel 2

THE Tigers were denied a deserved point against their inform visitors when Stoke Gabriel grabbed a late winner.

The match was heading for a creditable 1-1 draw for Nick Ogden's side when Kevin Willis stabbed in Dave Worthington's cross to clinch all three points for the south Devon side and secure their fourth win in five games.

Worthington had earlier opened the scoring with a terrific 25-year volley and that remained the difference at half-time. But the Tigers have a bit more steel and determination to their side since Ogden's arrival and Jamie Barfoot scored a deserved equaliser on the hour after good work by Terry Emmett. Sadly it wasn't enough to earn a point.

SOUTH WEST PENINSULA — OTTERY ST MARY FC

Carlsberg South West
Peninsula League
Division One East

Ottery St Mary 0

Exeter Civil Service 3

DESPITE going into the game in poor form the visitors never looked in any danger of losing after racing into a fourth minute lead when Andy Brooks fired home.

A brilliant penalty save by Otters' goalkeeper Terry Pelley kept the home side in the game in the 55th minute but any hopes of a comeback were ruthlessly dashed when Exeter CS scored again five minutes later.

Harry Taylor, who had been fouled for the penalty, made no mistake this time as he made it 2-0 and Lee Douglas wrapped up the points with a header for 3-0.

FIRST WITH THE SPORT

AXMOUTH UNITED FC

IT was a case of de ja vu for Axmouth this weekend as another double header saw a league victory followed by an undeserved defeat in the local derby quarter-final Goalsworthy Cup tie at the hands of Beer Reserves.

On Saturday, Axmouth entertained a resurgent Chagford side having won their last three games — the latest a defeat of the home side two weeks ago.

As in recent games, Axmouth gave away an early lead as Chagford capitalised on poor marking from a corner in the seventh minute but with a change of tactics and some personnel Axmouth were playing the better football. After 17 minutes a good chance fell to the home side as a headed effort was scrambled off the line as they pressed more and more for an equaliser.

Then in the 32nd minute, a swift change of direction in the box by Charlie Clarke saw an away defender use his hand to block his path. Up stepped Jamie Hughes to calmly slot home from the spot for his 12th goal of the season making it 1-1. Just three minutes later and Clarke was provider again as his neat pass allowed Christian Burridge to finish neatly and make it 2-1, two more chances in the 37th and 43 minutes fell to Clarke and Burridge but neither could take them as the half ended.

After the break, the home side continued to control the game though the visitors looked dangerous at times and played football that certainly belied their league position.

However, in the 66th minute a moment of pure class saw Glenn Gould collect the ball some 30 yards out and spot the keeper off his line and he instantly hit a cool long range effort over his reach and high into the net to make it 3-1. It should have seen a comfortable victory but Chagford hit straight back through another penalty just four minutes later. Axmouth sat back and absorbed the away sides pressure with the back four of Dack, Sweetland, Challis and Sweeney defending stoutly with Challis giving a typically passionate and dominant display as they saw out the game to earn a vital three points. This was another step forward in terms of play and spirit and all on duty gave their all with Jamie Hughes again outstanding in midfield just losing out on man of match honours to Challis.

■ On Sunday Axmouth made the short journey to local rivals Beer Albion from Division Five for their much anticipated cup tie and both sides served up a great tie in a good spirited and well contested game.

It was Axmouth that started quicker as an early headed effort was saved on the line and another effort hit the bar in the 18th minute. As the away side continued to have the lions' share of possession and create more chances they were caught out when Beer's only effort of the half proved the vital one as a nice through ball was very neatly fired home from the edge of the box for an excellent finish to take the home side in 1-0 up at the break.

Feeling hard done by, Axmouth came out strongly in the second half and got a deserved equaliser when Clarke got on the end of a fine passing move to slip the ball past the keeper in the 60th minute. As both sides contested strongly the game looked destined for extra time or an away win as Axmouth continued to be on top only to see a speculative clearance bounce high off the hard surface over keeper Smart's grasp as he misjudged the flight and saw the ball loop over him into the empty net to break Axmouth hearts for a second week running.

Yet again this was an excellent performance by Axmouth who dominated a good Beer side from a division above for long periods with everyone contributing to a great team display. Yet again it was Hughes in midfield and Challis at the back who fought out man of the match honours though Taylor at right back and Dack at left back also gave noteworthy displays.

Manager Laurie Forino praised his team for yet another hard weekend's efforts in which he felt they deserved better luck. He said: "I'm really disappointed for all the lads who put on a great display but didn't get the reward of a place in the semi final which I felt they deserved. However, if we keep playing like this we can still challenge for league honours. All credit to the Beer lads who stood up well when we had them under pressure and made the most of the chances they had, we wish them well in the semi-final and hope to be playing them next year."

HONITON YOUTH RUGBY

Under 7s and Under 8s

DUE to other commitments both the Under 7s and 8s were struggling for players so combined their resources in order to fulfill their fixture at neighbours Cullompton.

With just nine players on show, Honiton played two matches against a very strong Cullompton squad. The first match was a close affair with both sides struggling to find space on a congested pitch. Unfortunately, Cullompton just shaded it nine tries to eight in a match Honiton could and should have won. Honiton try scorers were Sam Steel who grabbed four, Brodie Drinkwater, Kade Balesford, Toby Gleed and Charlie Sheppard who all crossed for one each.

The second match saw Honiton face a much bigger Cullompton side and pitch. This expanse favoured the home side who continually put on fresh legs which ultimately led to Cullompton winning 12 - 7.

Man of the match was Sam Steel grabbing six tries and Kade Balesford one. Despite the loss Honiton ran the home side close until they finally pulled away at the end when the Honiton players inevitably tired. The whole team played brilliantly and bravely with Brodie Drinkwater and Osian Owen typifying this never-say-die attitude after they both picked up injuries but valiantly carried on.

Under 9s

Coach Jeremy Gleed reported that it was a very disappointing display by the Under 9s against Cullompton and touring side Penryn. Honiton were once again unable to replicate the swift ball play and committed tackling so prevalent on the training ground and in doing so handed and gifted an easy win to both opposing sides. Good individual performances by Ben Deam and Joe Hollox who took man of the match against Cullompton as well as Maisie Harvey-Ingram who took player of the match against Penryn.

Elliott Plance also had his first game of the season. Honiton Under 9s remain a set of outstanding players who must learn to play as a team.

Final scores were Honiton 1 Cullompton 5 and Honiton 1 Penryn 6. Both Honiton tries were scored by Lewis Gleed.

Under 10s

Honiton travelled to Paignton on a glorious day to play six other sides in a round robin tournament. After losing their first two games to the eventual finalists the boys rallied well and went on to finish joint third with Brixham and Tavistock, however an inferior try count left Honiton out of the third and fourth place play off. A good day enjoyed by all who travelled from Honiton.

Under 11s

Honiton Under 11s travelled to Paignton on a lovely sunny morning to take part in the Trevor Ward Rugby Festival. Honiton were drawn against Paignton, Okehampton and Clifton(Bristol).

Honiton played some great rugby throughout the whole tournament in some very hard fought games and won matches against Paignton and Clifton. This then set up a final between Honiton and Okehampton. Unfortunately, with a few decisions going against Honiton they found it hard to get into their rhythm and eventually lost by three tries to one. However, the coaches would like to award the Man of the Match trophy to the entire team for some fantastic rugby and true grit and determination shown by all.

LEAGUE LUCK FOR ROOKIES

New Tipton manager's high hopes for third place

Tipton St John Reserves 1

TIPTON St John manager Mike Dawe believes his new team of rookies are on course for a top four finish in their first season of Devon and Exeter League football.

After several years in charge of the club's youth set-up, Dawe agreed to lead the newly-formed reserves side and has been heartened by their success, although agreed Saturday's win was one of their luckiest of the season.

"It is a new team whose average age is around 19 with four or five 16-year-olds playing as well and initially the aim was to finish in the top six this season and then challenge for promotion next season," said Dawe.

"Mathematically we can still win the league but I'm now pushing for fourth and if we are lucky third because most of the teams we have left to play are below us. I would be very happy with that."

The decisive goal came from a penalty which Offwell boss Alex McReadie groaned was one of the softest he had seen this season – and he had a good view of it as he was playing in goal.

"It was one of those games when nothing went for us, it was a total nightmare," said McReadie. "We hit the crossbar twice and the post but just couldn't get the ball in the net."

"Nevertheless, we are still in with a chance of promotion but we are now relying on other team's results."

Jack Collins was brought down and Curtis Winchcombe stepped up to coolly score off the post and clinch the points for the visitors.

"I would say they deserved to win but the essence of the game is that we had the luck today and that's football for you," agreed Dawe.
